Fintech Week SF 2026 is scheduled to take place in San Francisco, California, USA, from May 26–29, 2026.

Fintech Week SF is a prominent, city-wide fintech gathering organized by The Financial Club. It serves as a vital platform for bringing together founders, executives, investors, financial institutions, infrastructure providers, and policymakers from around the globe to discuss the future of finance, engage in business networking, and explore collaboration opportunities. The participation of this attendee is valued as an important aspect of this international business exchange.

This letter is issued solely to support the attendee's visa application and intended business travel to the United States for the purpose of attending this professional conference. Please be advised that this letter does not, in any way, constitute a guarantee of visa approval. Furthermore, we must clearly state that The Financial Club / TET Events LLC is not financially responsible for the attendee's travel, lodging, medical insurance, or any personal expenses incurred during their trip, unless a separate, explicit written agreement stating such financial responsibility has been executed.

We respectfully encourage the reviewing visa officer to consider this correspondence as confirmation of the attendee's legitimate intention to travel to the United States for essential business and professional development purposes tied directly to the Fintech Week SF 2026 event. Your favorable consideration of this application is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Alex Pelin
Founder, The Financial Club
Organizer, Fintech Week SF
